

At the close of the war he moved to Brook-lay City, Ill., thence to Brook-l. In 1873 he moved to Charl this place has since been his He was an honest, hard work-n, and had many friends who arn of his death with sorrow he will extend heartfelt sym-to the bereaved relatives. He member of the G. A. R., and der had charge of the last sad

Russell Correspondence.

Harriett Barnes Sims was born , 1875, near Russell, Iowa, and in. 25, 1908, at 12:30 p. m., at me five miles southwest of Her illness was of short a, being sick only a few weeks bercular trouble. She was unit-arriage to G. W. Sims on Octo-904. To this union was born one The deceased leaves besides band and one child, three step-and three sisters, Mrs. Clara s, Mrs. Mary Sims and Mrs. a Sims, all of Russell. She member of the Church of Christ ed a faithful christian life un-time of her death, and will be bered as a kind wife and loving friends were surprised and grieved to learn of the death of A. L. Latham, which occurred ome in this city Monday even-a. 27, 1908, she being ill only a ime with a complication of s. Her only daughter, Miss was at the hospital in Ottum-ere she underwent an opera-nd as her mother was not t to have been dangerously ill, s not informed of her illness Monday as relatives were afraid d interfere with her convales-However she did not arrive ntil after her mother's death. l services will be held at the terian church Thursday after-

Soderstrom-James.

Gus F. Soderstrom and Mrs.
James sprung a surprise on riends by going to the United terian parsonage on Tuesday g, January 28, 1908, where they nited in marriage at nine the ceremony being perform-Rev. M. G. Munn. They ex-go to housekeeping in the block.

groom is the proprietor of the r lunch wagon, and has resided tation for many years. He is a be rendered. Refreshments served.

Admission 10 cents.

The Baptist church held its annual meeting on Wednesday night. Besides transacting important business, a very pleasant social time was spent in the parlors of the church.

The Baptist Benevolent Society will meet this week on Friday, with Mrs.
Geo. Farlin.

The Presbyterian Aid Society will meet next Wednesday with Mrs. O. J.
Israel.

Mrs. C. J. Larson.

Mrs. C. J. Larson, who was for many years a resident of this county, died suddenly in Stanton on Saturday morning, Jan. 25, 1908, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ida Palmquist.
She had not been feeling well for several days, but nothing serious was apprehended, and on Saturday morning she was found dead in her bed.
The remains were brought to Chariton on Monday evening and on Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock funeral services were held at the Swedish Mission church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. N. A. Blomstrand, assisted by Rev. A. Noren, of Stanton, after which interment took place in the Chariton cemetery.

Johanna G. Johnson was born in Sweden on June 28, 1827. She was married there in 1850 to C. J. Larson.
They came to Chariton in 1868 and located on the farm in Lincoln township which has since been the family home. Mr. Larson died in 1895.
They were the parents of nine children, five of whom are living. They are A. H. Larson, of Kansas; J. O., of California; G. N., of Lincoln township; Mrs. Ida J. Palmquist, of Stanton; D. A., of Canada. Mrs. Larson had been a member of the Swedish Mission church here for twenty-eight years, and was one of the charter members. She was always faithful to her church duties and lived an earnest, christian life. Her friends were numbered by her acquaintances and her death is mourned by all who knew her. The surviving relatives have the sympathy of the community in their great grief.

John H. Hoops.

John H. Hoops was born in Perry county, Ohio, on March 10, 1825. At the age of 27 he was united in marriage to Hester A. Falls. To this union nine children were born, three of whom died in infancy. Frank, the oldest son, died on March 6, 1898.
Those who survive are Mary Allen, of not return to school again.

He will go in a few day Texas, and other points where he expects to be remainder of the school will probably return to next fall.

The Hobson Jewelry and have removed the partition of their store and arranged goods to better advantage stock of pianos and talkinand records is now so low takes considerable room change was necessary to ac-the stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Von of Burlington, were called first of the week by the de-father, John Everett. The home last evening, accom-Mrs. Everett, who will spe-in Burlington. Mr. J. F.
Nebraska, was also here.

If you want one of the fitting Case corsets, you from Mrs. T. C. Walker, n

Mr. Ora Wagner, of D returned home last eveni-few days' visit with his Geo. Scott, and other relat-

While experimenting v alcohol engine last Thurs-Fluke had his face badly explosion.

Public Sales.

Mrs. Nathan Kenney v public auction at the Nath home 1 1/2 miles north of Cl Wednesday, February 5, residence and 8 acres of gro-of horses, 9 head of hogs, 8 dozen thoroughbred Buff chickens, farm implemen-grain, etc. N. C. Byers, at Wright & Roberts will Wright farm 9 miles south-ton, on Friday, Feb. 7, horses, 52 head of cattle, hogs, implements, etc. N Johnson, aucts.

J. B. Dean will sell at 1 miles northwest of Charito nesday, Feb. 5, 10 head of head of cattle, 31 head of plements, etc. Morehead aucts.

Wilson Kimsey & Sons
the Mallory farm 1 1/2 miles oil tanks, on Tuesday, Feb. of horses, 12 head of cattle,

1/30/1908 Front Page

The Chariton Herald

C44-602