Hi,

I haven't heard back from you since I replied to your first message, but I see that all three panels have come back now and we are a 37/37 match! That makes you and the descendant of Denver Posey Webb (the one where we don't know the father of Denver Posey Webb and he got his last name through his mother) the only perfect matches for my DNA in the group! This makes you likely the closest relative in the group so far. Did you look at my family genealogy on-line to try to find where we may connect?

Looking at the e-mail address of djwebb I am wondering if you might be the person I have listed as D. J. Webb Sherven in my family genealogy <http://home.alltel.net/riwebb/wc01/wc01_036.html>. If so, then you are my third cousin! It seems to me that I may even have communicated with you in the past, although I am not at home right now and cannot confirm that. If that is not you, you can go up on the mail side three generations and you will be at my GG Grandfather, John Smith Webb. If you don't see any names on that page that are familiar to your genealogy, keep going up the Webb side until you find a common relative. I am confident that you are closely related enough that you will find our common relative there.

At any rate, we should definitely have information that we can share about our common ancestry!

Take care,

Richard

Richard,

Well, that does make it interesting! Here is my line of descent:

I. David Jonathan Webb, b. 6 Jul 1948 in Bisbee, Cochise County, AZ
m. 13 Apr 1973 in Urbana, Champaign County, IL
div. 4 Jan 1984 in Houston, Harris County, TX
Mary Ruth MORRIS, b. 29 Oct 1949 in Del Rio, Val Verde County, TX
Children: Dylan Jonathan WEBB, b. 24 Mar 1978 in Houston
Erin Bregetha WEBB, b. 16 Sep 1980 in Houston

II. Harold David WEBB, b. 14 Jun 1907 in Olympia, Thurston County, WA
m. 6 Feb 1928 in Montesano, Grays Harbor County, WA
d. 23 Jan 1983 in Lynwood, Los Angeles County, CA Constance Elizabeth Anderson, b. 27 Jul 1911 in Prairie City, Grant County, OR
d. 30 May 1980 in Sierra Vista, Cochise County, AZ

III. Delbert Jay WEBB, b. 23 Aug 1874 near Stockholm, Wright County, MN

m. 12 Aug 1901 in Shelton, Mason County, WA

d. 27 May 1953 in Olympia, WA

Ethel Ione HENDRICKSON, b. 1 May 1882 in York, York County, NE

d. 19 Aug 1956 in Olympia, WA

IV. Daniel A. WEBB, b. 9 Jun 1850 in Greenup County, KY

m. 4 Dec 1872 in Reynolds, Todd County, MN

d. 8 May 1925 in Bellingham, Whatcom County, WA

Nancy Melissia DANIEL, b. 18 Feb 1856 in Waterville, Le Sueur County, MN

d. 29 May 1919 in Whatcom County, WA

V. Jacob WEBB, b. 24 Mar 1807 in Tazewell County, VA

m. 7 Aug 1838 in Greenup County, KY

d. 27 Apr 1856, probably in Logan County, (W)VA

Sarah Jane RIFFE, b. 21 Jul 1823, probably in Pike County, KY

d. 11 Jan 1866, WV or VA, buried in KY

There are some murky beginnings for the line, apparently tracing to Tazewell County, VA. I will abstract some of the book that I wrote on the line and give the facts and level of certainty to those facts that I have been able to dig out. Daniel WEBB, my great grandfather, was only 6 when his father died, and he claimed to remember that Jacob was born 24 March 1807 in Tazewell County and that he had a brother John and a sister Nancy. I think that Daniel's older sister, Sarah, was the source of this information, but she was only fourteen when Jacob died. Daniel was adopted by his sister and they moved to Minnesota in 1865.

I'm just not familiar with the line of WEBBs that you connect to. There was nothing that suggested that my WEBB line had any connection with Tennessee, so I never loved at those WEBB lines. Franklin County borders Alabama and is a long way from Kentucky, where the first clear unambiguous evidence exists for my line. But DNA does not lie, and it seems that I need to investigate much more fully!

I live in Houston, TX. The last couple of weeks have been pretty chaotic for me, but I am getting back into the swing of things.

Are you this Richard WEBB?:

Note that my grandmother was born in York County, NE. Unfortunately for a WEBB genealogy, my WEBB line never went to Nebraska. Well, I did a couple of times: 1965 with my father to check into his roots, and in 1985 for some genealogy of my own.
