He fathered Roy Lee Harden with wife Vera Ashley and i have located his grave site. He is buried in Elmwood Cemetery in Springfield TN next to my great grandfather, John Will Harden While I really have no idea what he did for a living, I do not that he worked in many hotels in Detroit

Notes for Robert Chilton Harden:

My father never had a birth certificate and could only guess that he was born in 1929. He lied about his age and entered the US Army in 1946 claiming that he was 18, when in truth he was only 17.

Now with find of the 1930 Federal Census I find proof that he was not born in 1929, because he is not listed with mother Mary Ethel Harden , brother, Billy Harden, , grandmother Nora Chilton, aunt Violet Chilton and the census date is April 1 1930. His actual birth date is June 8 1930

Knowing these facts makes him actually 16 when he entered the service. He served in Korea during the entire conflict, police action, as the political machine has so called the Forgotten War. After the war in Korea ended in 1953 he returned to his family in Springfield TN and remained in the US Army reserves with the rank First Sgt. He established a reserve unit in Springfield and that unit was later moved to Nashville TN and became the 104th Military Police unit. With combined active and inactive service he retired 8 Jun 1995, with 49 years 6 month service, with highest commissioned rank that can be archived, Command Sergeant Major. At his death he received a full military funeral.

This is what the WSW head stones look like now. I am told that the White House TN Historic Society did this and is caring for the stones.

Richard this a section copy of a 1878 map of Sumner Co TN. It is the 15th district.

Look in the upper left middle and you will see the names and location of 3 of WSW children. Samuel Webb, George W Webb and Burton Worth Webb. Almstead Webb lived in the same district as his father. Look in the middle of the map and you will see the name Jesse Harden. That is Gorge Tomas Harden's father with his name spelled wrong. To the right and up a little you see J Jackson, this is George T Harden's wife Sallie's grandfather, Jesse Jackson. You can see how close these families were. Jesse Harden raised George, he lived with him even in Dyer CO TN, they just counted him with his mother.
