

Mrs. Malinda Huffaker, Charter Member Of Visalia Rebekahs, Dies At Home Here

Mrs. Malinda Palestine Huffaker, pioneer resident of Visalia and the last surviving charter member of the Visalia Rebekah lodge, died Saturday at her home, 530 No. Court st., on her 95th birthday.

She was the widow of Jacob V. Huffaker. Her twin sister, Mrs. Weishar, died here in 1939. She was a native of Lawrence County, Mo.

Survivors include two sons, Jacob A. Huffaker, Richmond, and Harold P. Huffaker, Visalia; a brother, James R. Downing, Laytonville; five grandchildren, Mrs. Merlo Davis, Alameda, Mrs. Rose-lie Stewart, Oakland, Mrs. Virginia Cornelissens, Oakland, Miss Marjorie Huffaker, Alameda, and Fred Huffaker, Jr., Visalia; six great grandchildren, William N. and Robert D. Ingram, Visalia, Carol Ann Cornelissens, Oakland, and Joanne, Garry and Petty Anderson, Oakland; two great, great grandchildren, James and Stephen Ingram, Visalia; a niece, Mrs. Emma Patrick, Visalia, and a nephew, George Weishar, Hanford.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. in the Brooks Memorial Chapel, the Rev. R. W.

Estus officiating. Graveside services will be held by the Rebekah Lodge. Burial will be made in the Visalia Cemetery.

House Trailers Afire

Faulty wiring was reported as the cause of a house trailer fire that damaged a trailer owned by Art Haines and the one parked next to it, owned by Nancy Haines, to the extent of $250, the division of forestry reported.

The blaze occurred Saturday night at Doyle Colony.

Trucks from Doyle Colony and Porterville responded to the alarm.

Farmersville Youth Hurt

Bobby Moody, 18, Farmersville, was taken to the Visalia hospital with minor injuries Saturday evening, received when a car in which he was riding went out of control on the wet pavement and overturned.

The accident occurred on the Farmersville blvd., 1½ miles south of Farmersville.

The vehicle was driven by Earl C. Burke, 20, Farmersville.

Malinda Palenstie Huffaker Obituary

Clipped By:

riwebb

Fri, Jun 7, 2019