Norman N. Yager

TUCSON, Ariz. — Norman Neil Yager, 61, Tucson, formerly of St. Joseph, died of cancer Tuesday, Oct. 25, 1994.

Born in St. Joseph, Mr. Yager had resided in Longmont, Colo., before moving to Tucson.

He had been employed by IBM in Tucson for 23 years, retiring in 1989. Then he worked for Environmental Strategies Inc., Tucson.

Mr. Yager was a member of the Evangelical Covenant Church, Tucson, where he had taught Sunday school, served as church chairman had been a choir member. He also had been a volunteer for the Polio Epic Support Group.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Carl.

Surviving: his wife, Joanne of the home; two sons, Dan, Longmont and Randal, Tucson; a daughter, Becky McGeehan, Tucson; two brothers, Merle E., St. Joseph and Ronald G., Rock Hill, S.C.; and four grandchildren.

The funeral service was held Friday, Oct. 28, at Hudgel's Swan Funeral Home, Tucson. Burial was in Tucson.

Obituary for Norman Neil Yager (Aged 61)

Clipped By:

riwebb84
Sun, Sep 27, 2020