

Mrs. K. Nielsen, 47, Dies Suddenly In Omaha Hospital

Mrs. Karen D. Nielsen, 47, died at 6:30 p. m. Sunday in the University hospital in Omaha, where she had been taken August 10.

Mrs. Nielsen, wife of Mads C. Nielsen, was born in Lundforlund, Denmark, July 13, 1895 and came to the United States in 1913 to join her brothers, Fred, Hans and Carl Christiansen.

She was married April 20, 1920, to Mr. Nielsen in Fremont. After their marriage they lived one year in Grand Island, then moved to Dannebrog, Nebr., where he worked for the Standard Oil company. He afterwards farmed at Litchfield, Nebr., for two years.

They moved back to Fremont in 1927, and Mr. Nielsen worked for a while as a carpenter. He has been employed by the city school system for the last 14 years. The family home is at 407 E. 11th.

Mrs. Nielsen was a member of the First Lutheran church, the Ladies' Aid society and the V. F. W. auxiliary.

Surviving her are her husband, sons and daughters, Mrs. Esther Koyen, Beulah, Donald, Caroline, Paul and Shirley, all of Fremont; brothers, Fred, Hans and Morris Christiansen, all of Fremont, and Carl of Chicago; and three sisters and a brother in Denmark.

Funeral arrangements will be announced. The body is at the Fred Bader Funeral home.
