Wallingford

She died Sunday, July 25, 2004, at Fremont Area Medical Center.

Beulah A. Nielsen was born Feb. 6, 1925, at Litchfield. She moved to Fremont as a child. She was a 1942 Fremont High School graduate. She previously was employed as a waitress at the former Green Room and Baders Cafe. She also worked at the former Bruner Drug Store & Gambles Warehouse, all in Fremont. She worked at the Nebraska Ordnance Plant at Mead. From 1961-93, she and her husband, Ted, owned and operated Ted's T.V. in Fremont.

She was a member of First Baptist Church in Fremont, Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 854 Auxiliary in Fremont; Military Order of the Cootie Auxiliary; former Girl Scout and Brownie Scout leader and former member of Izaak Walton League.

She married Theodore Wallingford on May 6, 1945, at Oakland.

Survivors include: her husband, "Ted"; two daughters, Gloria "Glo" (Mrs. Eugene) Sievers of Lake Forest, Calif. and Linda (Mrs. Charlie) Kauffman of Orlando, Fla.; a brother, Donald (and wife, Yvonne) Nielsen of Lincoln; a sister, Esther Koyen of Lake Havasu City, Ariz.; four grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, two brothers, two sisters, a sister-in-law, and three brothers-in-law.

The funeral will be 2 p.m. Thursday at First Baptist Church in Fremont with the Rev. Leland Foreman officiating. Visitation will be 1-9 p.m. Wednesday and 9-11 a.m. Thursday, with family receiving friends from 6:30-8 p.m. Wednesday, all at Moser Memorial Chapel in Fremont. Visitation continues one hour prior to service time Thursday at the church.

Burial will be in Ridge Cemetery in Fremont.

Memorials have been established to the church and American Kidney Foundation.
