

Twins Observe 78th Anniversary Of Birth Here

The seventy-eighth birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Palestine Huffaker and Mrs. Clementine Weishar of this city, twin sisters, were observed last evening at a family dinner party which took place in Mrs. Huffaker's home at 530 North Court street.

Mrs. Huffaker and Mrs. Weishar are the daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Downing and were born in Missouri. When they were three years old they came to California with their parents. They settled in Squaw valley with their father and mother while still young girls and were both married in Visalia. The birthday party last evening took place in the home where all of the children of both the Huffaker and Weishar families were born. All of the children, with the exception of Will Huffaker of this city who died last October, are still living.

Mrs. Huffaker's descendants present last evening were: a son, Arthur Huffaker and his wife of Richmond, who were accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Huffaker's brother, Jake Curry, who arrived in Richmond recently from Cuba; a son, Fred E. Huffaker and Mrs. Huffaker of Visalia and their son, Ted, who arrived here from the University of California at Los Angeles late yesterday afternoon; a daughter, Mrs. Elsie L. Dollner and two grandchildren, Billie and Bobbie Ingram; a son, J. E. Huffaker and family of San Jose, and another son, Harold Huffaker of Visalia.

Mrs. Weishar's children and grandchildren present were: a daughter, Mrs. Ida Honeywell of Oakland, a son, Postmaster George Weishar and Mrs. Weishar of Hanford; a son, Frank Weishar and family of Bakersfield; and a daughter, Mrs. Claude Patrick and Mr. Patrick of Visalia.

Palestine Huffaker and Clementine Weishar celebrate 78th birthday

Clipped By:

riwebb
Fri, Jun 7, 2019