

DOUBLE FUNERAL HELDFOR FLOOD VICTIMS

Double funeral services were held at noon Saturday at Wadlows' Mortuary in Lincoln for John S. Wagner, 47, and his wife, Yvonne Pearl Wagner, 28. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner lost their lives in the flash flood on Monday evening of last week while enroute from Crete to Lincoln. They were found near Highway 77, about seven miles south of Lincoln.

Mr. Wagner is survived by four sons, John jr. of Bellevue, Gerald and Bernard of Lincoln and Robert with the navy in Alaska; two daughters, Mrs. Marjorie Miller and Shirley Wagner of Lincoln; three brothers, Ed of Lincoln, Henry of Omaha and Albert of Peoria Ill.; seven sisters, Mrs. Blanche Proctor and Mrs. Elmer Gibenrath of Lincoln, Mrs. Erma Moser of Hallam, Mrs. Dene Brownlee of Glendale, Calif., Mrs. Chas. King of Hawthorne, Calif., Mrs. Josephine Kremerik of Orlando Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Betty Stanek of Omaha; his father, Henry of Lincoln; and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Wagner is survived by a daughter, Donna Mae Uribe of Lincoln; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Johnson of Lincoln; a sister, Mrs. Lucille Stradley of Lincoln; and a brother, Irvia Johnson of Seward.

Mrs. Wagner also is survived by five aunts in this vicinity. They are Mrs. Anna Maahs, Mrs. Emma Baker, Mrs. Helen English, Mrs. William Francke and Mrs. Ernest Baade. She was known by many people in this vicinity.

Double funeral services were held at noon Saturday, Rev. J. J. Sheaff officiating. Burial was in Wyuka.